

The Exceptional Family Member Program Presents

LEGAL GUARDIANSHIP

Presented by:
Randall Fisher, The Fisher Law Office

Eight things you need to know about the guardian process:

- What exactly does a guardian do and who needs one?
- When do you need to establish a guardian?
- How long does it take to be appointed guardian?
- What is “informed consent”? And who is able or not able to provide it?
- What does the court take into consideration in appointing a guardian?
- Can guardianship be shared between two parents?
- What if there is disagreement over who should be appointed guardian?
- How do I make arrangements to designate someone to take my place as guardian in the event of my death?
