ELIGIBILITY :

CYSS Spring Sports Program is open to all CYSS youth whose parents are: active duty military, retired military personnel, or DoD civilian personnel working on Fort George G. Meade or the National Security Agency and their contractors.

EARLY REGISTRATION:

Participants; ages of nine and older, need to register early. These age groups normally play in county sponsored programs. To avoid the interest list; early registration is recommended.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS:

In order to register, each participant must have a current physical (valid through 1 June 2012) on file with CYSS. Parents may register their youth; but be advised that once practices begin, no youth will be allowed to practice until a current physical is provided to the CYSS Sports Office.

COACHES NEEDED:

Anyone who is interested in coaching should contact the CYSS Sports Office at 301-677-1329/1179, or email the CYSS Acting Sports Director; jesse.c.miller2.naf@mail.mil All coaches are required to complete a background check and attend coaches' certification training. Dates and times of certification will be provided if you are chosen to coach a team. Head and Assistant Coaches who have a youth participating will be given a coach's discount.

ARMY FAMILY COVENANT:

We recognize that the strength of our service members comes from the strength of their families. The Fort Meade Child, Youth and School Services is committed to providing families of service members' quality care. See if you qualify for many of the extra benefits including free sports registrations. Inquire when registering with CYSS Central Registration or call 301-677-1149 / 1156.
